LIMERICK'S 4-DAY FIGHT

Burst of Gunfire in Mountjoy
Stops Imprisoned Rebels
From Signaling.

DUBLIN, July 15 (Associated Press).—After four hours' fighting, the Free State troops, under command of Commandant-General John J. McKeown, today captured the town of Collooney, six miles south of Sligo, taking seventy prisoners with a large quantity of arms, ammunition and bombs.

Snipers lodged in the tower of the Protestant Church had to be ousted by the use of sixteen pounders, considerably damaging the building.

Commandant James Molloy of the irregulars was among those taken prisoner.

Fighting Through Limerick.

Fighting has been in progress in Limerick since 7 o'clock Tuesday evening, says a report on operations in the province given out by the Free State headquarters. The position of the Government forces in Limerick is stated to be satisfactory. On Wednesday they captured an important post, killing one man and taking thirteen prisoners.

The Republicans hold all the barracks in Waterford and have mined the roads leading to the city. They are also said to be concentrating on Castlebar and Foxford, in County Mayo.

Firing in Mountjoy.

The great burst of gunfire in Mountjoy prison which caused a sensation throughout the city yesterday, was caused by the efforts of the prison authorities to put an end to the signalling going on between the Republican prisoners and their adherents on the outside, says an unofficial statement given out today.

When the prisoners were ordered to retire from the windows and cease their signalling they refused, whereupon they were given the ultimatum that if they did not comply within a half hour they would be fired upon. The guards were privately instructed to give three warnings and then to fire in the air.

The prisoners retired after the first volley, but hurled bricks and other missiles at the guards. Two prisoners suffered slight flesh wounds.

An indication of the severity of the censorship now in force in the Irish capital is furnished by the current issue of the Voice of Labor, official newspaper of the Irish Transport Workers Union, which appears with thirteen blank columns out of a total of thirty-two.

An editorial note explains that, in view of the censorship, the paper is unable to express labor's full views on anything touching the military or political situation.

CHINESE HIDDEN ON SHIP.

Alleged Smuggling Attempt Foiled in Florida.

MIAMI, July 15. — Thirteen Chinese were found last night huddled in a compartment aboard a schooner in the Miami River. W. J. Stanford, captain of the vessel, held on a charge of conspiracy and smuggling, was given a hearing today before Federal Judge Graham.

Trotzky's Dog's Violent Death Excites Moscow

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK HERALD. Copyright, 1922, by The New York Herald. MOSCOW, July 15.—The nervous tension in Moscow was demonstrated today when a report spread through the city that Leon Trotzky had been assassinated. It was only one of a series of most alarming rumors which have been circulated recently, but it threw the city into wild excitement for an hour or two.

FASCISTI SEIZE 3 RADICAL CENTERS

Greet 500 Troops Sent to Restore Order at Cremona as Brothers.

ROME, July 15.—An acute situation has developed from the struggle between the Fascisti and Communists. The Fascisti have mobilized their bands and occupied several towns where Communism is rampant, the chief places taken being Viterbo, Cremona and Alatri.

The Fascisti complain that the Government, although proclaiming its desire to reestablish order without partisanship, "in reality sides with the Socialists, who take advantage of this for resuming their old overbearing attitude as before they were organized." For this reason, the Fascisti say, they have decided again to rely on their own forces.

In all the towns occupied, a large majority of the population received the Fascisti as liberators from the Social Communist terror. This was especially so at Cremona, where an enthusiastic reception was given to the 5,000 Fascisti who entered the city.

The Avanti, Socialist organ, recently published a violent attack against the Fascisti, who, considering it an act of provocation, devastated the Chamber of Commerce in Cremona, which was the Bolshevik center, and destroyed the printing house of the local Communist paper and the seat of the Communist cooperative. They also set fire to the houses of the Christian Socialist Deputy Miglioli and the Socialist Deputy Garivotti.

The Carabinieri and royal guards were insufficient in number to prevent violence, and 500 soldiers were hurriedly sent to Cremona to reestablish order. They were received in a fraternal manner by the population, while the Fascisti greeted them with cries of "Long live the army!" "Long live our brother soldier!" and "Down with the Communists and Bolsheviks!"

DOOR IS NOT CLOSED IF SOVIET CHANGES VIEW

Hague Offer to Litvinoff if He Modifies Declaration.

THE HAGUE, July 15 (Associated Press).—M. Patyn, president of the Central Commission, according to an official communiqué, sent a note today to Maxim Litvinoff, head of the Russian delegation, enclosing a copy of a letter dated July 14 from the president of the Debt Subcommission, containing notification that the Debt Commission had come to the conclusion that discussions with the Russian were no longer expedient.

M. Patyn points out that a similar conclusion reached by the third subcommission was explained to the Russians on Friday and adds: "I am authorized to communicate to you that the president of the third subcommission was giving voice to the unanimous opinion of the presidents and members of the three subcommissions when he stated at the above mentioned meeting on July 14 that if M. Litvinoff wished to make a statement modifying his previous declarations the other subcommissions no doubt would take his statement into account, and the door was not closed to further negotiations."
